

Loving God – Part 3

1. The _____ in the Bible is to _____ God. Matthew 22:36-38.
2. God has great _____ for those who _____ Him _____. Romans 8:28; 1 Corinthians 8:3; 1 Corinthians 2:9; Psalm 91:14; John 14:21.
3. God has great _____ at the _____ of Christ for those who _____ what they _____ because they _____ God. 1 Corinthians 4:5; 2 Corinthians 5:14-15; James 1:12.
4. Our love for God often _____ because of _____ and we don't even _____ it. Revelation 2:2-4.
5. The major reason that we _____ from God is because we begin to _____ the _____ more and more. 1 John 2:15; 1 Timothy 6:10; Matthew 6:24.
6. Our _____ for the _____ and the things in it _____ slowly and without our _____ it because it is _____ around us _____ the time.
7. _____ the _____ is the same as _____. Exodus 20:3; 1 Corinthians 10:14; 1 John 5:21; Psalm 115:4; Colossians 3:5.

8. Our _____ with God is tremendously impacted by our level of _____ for the _____.
James 4:4; 1 John 2:15; Deuteronomy 31:17-18, 32:20-21.
9. A major key to _____ the _____ of love we have for God as opposed to our love of the _____ is the amount of _____ we have in our life, especially when _____ times come. Hebrews 13:5; 1 Tim. 6:6-8; 2 Cor. 12:10; Philippians 4:11-13.
10. The absence of _____ is accompanied by _____, worry, _____ and lack of _____.
11. A good _____ to develop in our life is to declare our love for God and our _____ not to love anything _____ God whenever we find ourselves _____ or _____ about our circumstances. Habakkuk 3:17-19; Psalm 16:8-11, 73:25-26, 28.
12. God will periodically and purposely bring _____ into our life to see how much we really do _____ Him, and to develop the _____ trait of _____ in us.
Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 13:3.